PART I – PRELIMINARY

1. Title

This Directive may be cited as the Financial Inclusion for Persons with Disabilities Directive, 2025.

2. Introduction

This Directive is in line with internationally accepted financial inclusion principles which include safe, efficient, and widely reachable financial infrastructures, access to a broad network of service points and interoperability and effective awareness and financial literacy initiatives. These principles aim at ensuring that Persons with Disabilities have equitable and non-discriminatory access to the products, services and premises of banks and specialized deposit-taking institutions, non-banking financial institutions and payment service providers. It is aimed at ensuring that Financial Service Providers render equal standards of service to Persons with Disabilities. Such services shall ensure the required standard of confidentiality in service delivery, provide Persons with Disabilities, the capacity and opportunity to choose from various modes of service delivery, and provide clear, comprehensive, and accurate information on financial products and services, in a manner that is accessible at all stages of delivery, to Persons with Disabilities.

3. Application

This Directive is issued pursuant to sections 6 and 7 of the Persons with Disability Act, 2006 (Act 715), section 53 of the Borrowers and Lenders Act 2020, (Act 1052), section 92(1) of the Banks & Specialised Deposit Taking Institutions Act, 2016 (Act 930) and section 101(2)(f) of the Payment Systems and Services Act 2019 (Act 987). The Directive also seeks to implement the principles of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities. The Directive shall apply to all Financial Service Providers regulated by the Bank of Ghana.

4. Objective of the Directive

The objective of this Directive is to:

- (a) Promote access to financial products and services for Persons with Disabilities.
- (b) Promote usage of financial products and services by Persons with Disabilities.
- (c) Establish a framework for Financial Service Providers to create policies, procedures and provide facilities to ensure that Persons with Disabilities have access to wide range of financial products and services.

5. Principles

This Directive is guided by the principles of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disability. This includes the following:

- Equality of opportunity: This implies taking positive action to ensure the removal of all barriers that inhibit Persons with Disabilities.
- Respect for inherent dignity, individual autonomy, including the right to make one's own choices and independence of persons.

- Non-discrimination: This refers to the equal treatment of all persons with dignity, regardless of race, ethnicity, colour, gender, religion, language, social origin, social status, or disability.
- Full and effective participation and inclusion in society: This principle aims to engage persons with disabilities in wider society and in decision making that will affect them. It seeks to make them active in their personal development and their community.
- Respect for difference and acceptance of Persons with Disabilities as part of human diversity and humanity.
- Accessibility: This implies the implementation of measures to provide access to, and usage of a broad range of affordable products facilities, products and services that are of universal design.

6. Interpretation

In this Directive, unless the context otherwise requires,

“Accessibility” means the ability to obtain financial products and services, including credit, deposits, and payment services devoid of barriers and limitations that potentially exclude persons with disabilities.

“Bank” means the Bank of Ghana.

“Disability Inclusion Report” means a report detailing activities undertaken by Financial Service Providers to facilitate the participation and usage of Persons with Disabilities in banking activities, products, and services.

“Discrimination” means any distinction, exclusion, or restriction on the basis of disability which has the purpose or effect of impairing or nullifying the recognition of enjoyment or exercise on an equal basis with others of all human rights and fundamental freedoms.

“Equality of opportunity” means the creation of financial systems that offer all persons, including persons with disabilities, the opportunity to access financial products and services without barriers and limitations.

“Financial Service Provider” means a bank, a specialized deposit-taking institution, a payment service provider, or non-bank financial institution regulated by the Bank of Ghana.

“Inclusive Banking” means the provision of financial products and services to everyone, regardless their income, social status, or physical impairment.

“Non-discrimination” means equal treatment of all persons with dignity, regardless of race, ethnicity, colour, gender, religion, language, social origin social status, or disability.

“Person with Disability” includes a person who has a physical, mental, psycho-social, intellectual, neurological, developmental, or other sensory impairments which in interaction with environmental, attitudinal, or other barriers hinder full and effective participation in society on an equal basis with others.”

“Reasonable Accommodation” means necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments of banking facilities to ensure that they do not impose a disproportionate or undue burden on Persons with Disabilities who wish to access and use banking products and services.

“Universal Design” means the design of products, environments, programmes, and services to be usable by all people, to the greatest extent possible, without the need for adaptation or specialised design. Universal Design shall not exclude assistive devices for particular groups of Persons with Disabilities where needed.

“Usage” means the extent to which, and manner in which Persons with Disabilities use tailored products and services offered by Financial Service Providers to targeted at promoting financial inclusion for persons with disabilities.
