

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SECOND DEPUTY GOVERNOR OF THE BANK OF GHANA, MRS. ELSIE ADDO AWADZI, TO TAKE EARLY RETIREMENT

Mrs. Elsie Addo Awadzi, the Second Deputy Governor of the Bank of Ghana, has served notice of her decision to take early retirement from the Bank with effect from 28th February 2025.

Mrs. Addo Awadzi was appointed on 12th February 2018 for her first four-year term and re-appointed for a second term in February 2022, ending in February 2026, in line with the Bank of Ghana Act, 2002 (Act 612), as amended.

H.E President John Mahama has accepted Mrs. Addo Awadzi's decision to take early retirement from the Bank with effect from 28th February 2025 and has thanked her for her service to the Bank and the Republic.

The Bank of Ghana thanks Mrs. Addo Awadzi for her distinguished service to the Bank and the Republic and wishes her well in her future endeavours. -END-

ISSUED BY THE COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

10 FEBRUARY 2025